

West End Trail

Length: 2 kilometres

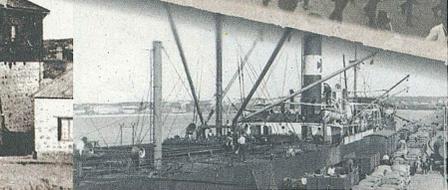

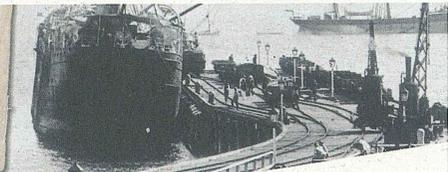

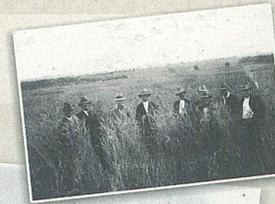

Start the West End Trail outside the Geraldton Port Authority building on Francis Street.

Follow these markers along the way

Much of the early development of Geraldton took place within 500 metres of the start of this trail. The trail looks at the history of the people who came to Champion Bay, the pioneers and the transients. Several World War II military command posts were in the West End. Learn how after the war the West End went through a dramatic change as the harbour expanded and the fishing industry developed.

a vibrant future

Geraldton TRAILS
walk, cycle, drive

*Adventure and misadventure; romance and catastrophe;
hardship and triumph; foundering and faith;*

Geraldton is rich in stories. Once rugged pristine coast, then forgotten outpost of the Swan River Colony – now humming city and port – discover the stories behind the transition of Geraldton.

Geraldton Trails give you insight into the changes to the region over time, and all loop back to their starting point.

Marine Terrace Trail

Length: 2 kilometres

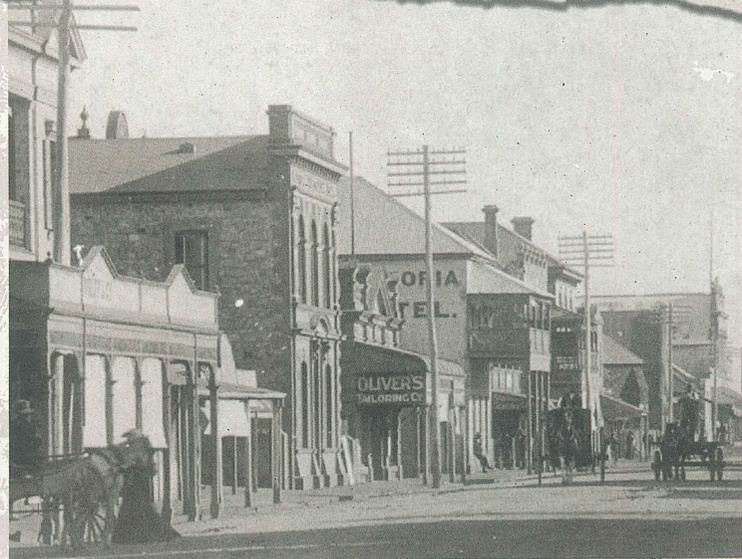

The Marine Terrace Trail begins on the foreshore outside DOME Café.

Follow these markers along the way

Fine examples of Victorian, Federation and Art Deco buildings can be viewed on this walk. Marine Terrace has long been the commercial centre of town. Through the ages, for whatever reason people came to Geraldton, they would undoubtedly end up on Marine Terrace. Discover the life and times of some of them from the mid 1800s as you journey along the trail.

This project was supported by the Mid West Development Commission through the Royalties for Regions Mid West Regional Grants Scheme

TAKE A FRESH LOOK

Waterfront Trail

Length: 4 kilometres

The Waterfront Trail starts on the Geraldton foreshore outside DOME Café.

Follow these markers along the way

Enjoy a journey through time with a walk through some of the City's earliest streets and buildings. See how Champion Bay evolved into a busy port; and how the town of 4000 people transformed during World War II to accommodate 40,000 military personnel.

Learn how the original rail line that cut the town off from the beach was moved to develop the stunning foreshore you see today.

Bluff Point Trail

Length: 2 kilometres

The trail starts in Rundle Park at St Georges Beach, just off Kempton Street.

Follow these markers along the way

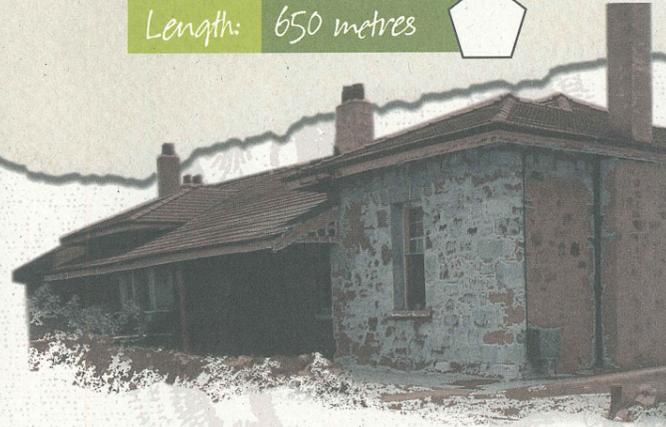

Some sections are not suitable for wheelchairs.

The site of the Bluff Point Lighthouse, which was officially lit on October 23, 1876, and the first lighthouse keeper's cottage is on this trail. The Lighthouse Keeper's Cottage remains today and is periodically open to the public.

You can also visit the area where the Bluff Point railway junction connected the Perth to Geraldton line with the Northampton line in 1886. Bluff Point was considered to be on the outskirts of town and a school, churches and shops were built for the local community.

Victoria Hospital Trail

Length: 650 metres

This trail starts outside the Bill Sewell Complex on the corner of Chapman Road and Bayly Street.

Follow these markers along the way

A path back through time; nearly always catering for those in the medical or penal system, the buildings have a unique history being at first a convict depot, a hospital and then a prison. Now known as the Bill Sewell Complex it houses the Geraldton Visitor Centre and was vested in the National Trust (WA) in 2009.
