Photographic Collection – Application for Use

The Geraldton Regional Library has an extensive photographic collection consisting of many items which have been donated to the Local Studies Collection.

As the intended use of this collection is to ensure the retention of local historic images for future use, many of these photos were donated by third parties who donated with agreed conditions of use. The release of photos in many instances will be dependent on the Photos Copyright Owners conditions of use. If the intended purpose of the application does not met these conditions, the photos will not be released.
