After you select your first magazine in your Library Collection, a second browser window will open to Zinio.com “Pick up your digital subscription to...”

3. If you are new to Zinio.com you will need to create a free Zinio.com account to view your magazine.

This Zinio.com account is required for you to view the magazines online and access the mobile apps.

Please note that this is a separate account from your library authenticated account created to select, store and access your library magazines; building your own unique collection. The benefit of your personal account beyond viewing the magazines, enables you to personalize your collection to view online or offline (on Zinio Reader 4 enabled Apps.) Apps are developed specifically for PC, Mac, iPad, iPhone, Android, Kindle Fire, and Blackberry Playbook devices. You can access your checkout magazine issues anytime, anywhere.

You must ensure the email you use for your Zinio.com account is exactly the same as your library authenticated account so that the accounts link together.

If you already have a consumer Zinio.com account make sure you're not already logged into your account so you can tie your existing account to your library account. Click on the "sign in here" link and your personal magazines and the one you selected from the library collection will appear in your Zinio.com "My Library".

4. Review your email preferences.

The 'Let Zinio Decide' box is defaulted as checked. This selection will send you some email notifications including promotions from the Zinio.com commercial site.

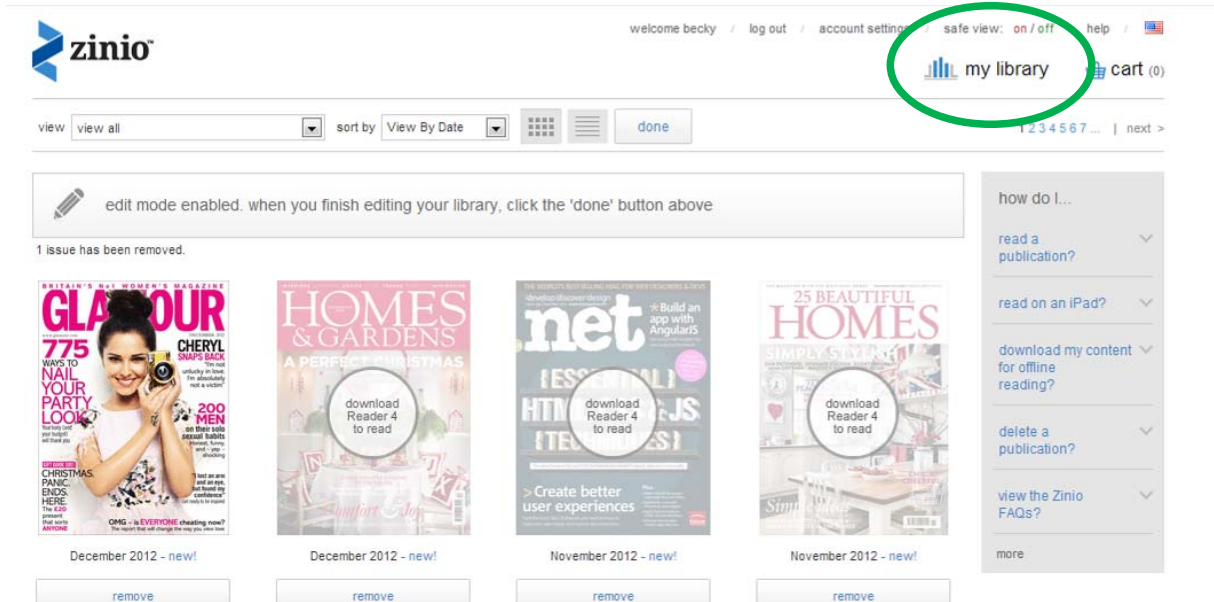

If you do not wish to receive email messages, simply de-select the option by clicking the 'check mark' off and update your preferences by clicking the 'submit' button.

Regardless of your selection, you will receive a reminder email each time a new issue is available of a title you have previously checked out as per standard digital magazine practices.

The screenshot shows the 'Email Preferences' page in a Zinio account. On the left is a dark sidebar menu with options: digital orders, manage, subscriptions, get help with a subscription, view order history, view gift cards, account settings (highlighted), email preferences (highlighted), change password, update zinio login, address and billing, info, and adult content. The main content area has a breadcrumb trail: home > Account Settings > Email Preferences. The title is 'personal preferences'. Below it is a sub-header: 'We manage a busy newsstand. Don't lose out on updates. Tell us more about yourself! This form helps us better personalize your experience on Zinio.com.' There are three sections of preferences: 1. 'Premier communications:' with a checked checkbox for 'Daily Deals : Sign me up for Zinio's deal of the day email'. 2. 'Your interests:' with a grid of 9 checkboxes: 'let zinio decide' (checked), 'art', 'automotive', 'entertainment', 'home', 'lifestyle', 'men's interests', 'news', 'science', 'eports', 'travel', and 'women's interests'. 3. 'About You:' with dropdown menus for 'Age Range' (25-34) and 'Gender' (female). Below these are three radio button questions: 'Are you interested in parenting related communications?' (No selected), 'Send me email updates about features, new products, and special offers from Zinio and its publishers.' (No selected), and 'Send me promotions from Zinio's trusted third-party partners.' (No selected). At the bottom right is a blue 'submit >>' button.

You can go into "account settings" and amend these preferences at any time.

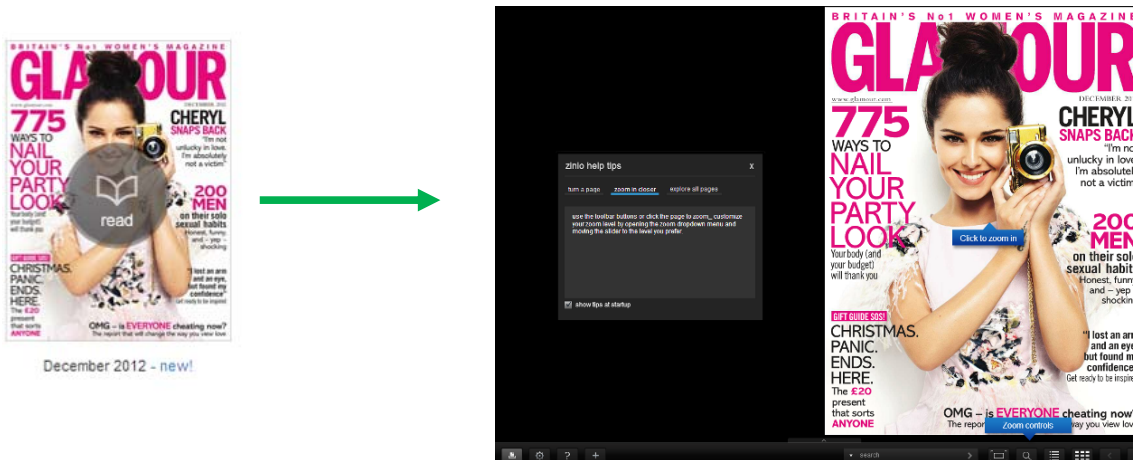

5. After logging into your Zinio account, you will view your magazines in your “My Library”.

If a “Read” prompt appears when you hover over the magazine cover, click and the magazine will open in a new browser box.

With the online reader you can view page spreads of the magazine just like in the print edition with many areas of the magazine having added-value links.

Additional view options include using the gallery view, slide page features and quick access to the magazine table of contents page. You can even search within a magazine, print pages (in some cases, where magazine publishers have allowed this) and zoom the page(s) to enjoy more page detail.

If a “Requires Reader 4” prompt appears when you hover over the magazine cover, the issue may only be viewed in the Reader 4 app.

Reader 4 is a software application from Adobe to enable secure downloading and reading of magazines.

Adobe is a large, trusted provider of software and this programme has proven simple to use as well as being very reliable.

Reader4 gives you the ability to read magazines on the move and off-line.

You will only need to download the software once.

How to download Zinio Reader 4 will be explained in part 3.

6. While you are in your Zinio “My Library” site, if you wish to return to your Library’s collection of magazines, you can toggle between your browser tabs at the top of your screen (in Internet explorer, Firefox, Chrome and Safari).

Frequently Asked Questions

1. I created an account but I did not receive my confirmation email. Why not?

The notification emails are sent automatically after you subscribe and should show up in your email account within minutes of registering. If you do not receive the confirmation email, it may have been blocked by your email security setting. Please check your spam or junk mail folder. If it is not there, open your security settings in your email and set them to allow delivery from Your Library <rbssso@rbdigital.onmicrosoft.com> and try the registration process again.

If you still fail to find the message, please contact your Library's Collection administrator who will be able to set up an account for you manually.

2. When I click on a magazine on my Library's Collection page, why am I seeing the message "Sorry. This digital magazine offer or download page cannot be found"?

This message means that you already have added that magazine to your collection. This is a security feature required by Zinio to ensure that only one patron has access to one magazine per account.

If you hadn't previously downloaded the issue, you will also see this message if another user's account is still logged into zinio.com on the PC/Mac/laptop/device you're using.

This will mean that your library collection account is unable to link to your zinio.com account.

Please go to www.zinio.com and log out of the previous user's account. You can either login to your account then so the title automatically transfers through when you go back into your Library Collection page and click on the cover, or click on the cover and you will be asked to login then.

3. I am trying to use my library email and password to log into Zinio.com, but it says my password is incorrect. Why is this?

Zinio for Libraries requires that a borrower creates a library account to access the library's collection page and a separate Zinio.com account to read and manage their content. This is a security feature demanded by the publishers participating in our program. You should use the same email address for both accounts.

YOUR LIBRARY COLLECTION ACCOUNT

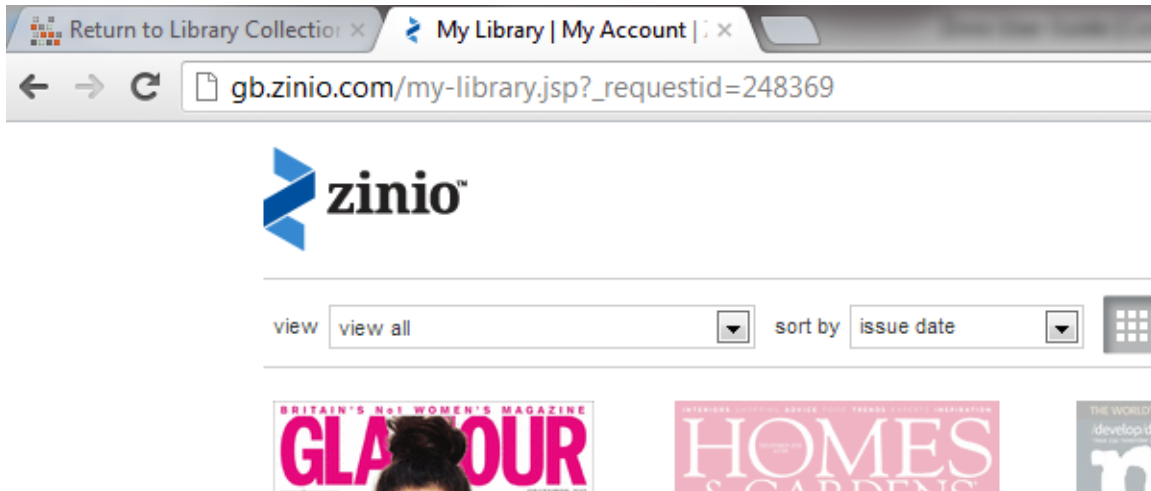

YOUR ZINIO.COM VIEWER ACCOUNT

4. How do I navigate from my Zinio.com account back to the library collection page?

While you are in your Zinio “My Library” site, if you wish to return to your Library’s collection of magazines, you can toggle between your browser tabs at the top of your screen (in Internet explorer, Firefox, Chrome and Safari).

If your settings show one browser window at a time, check your browser icon for the “titled” windows and select between the “Return to Library Collection” or the Zinio “My Library/My Account” tab.

If you do not have either, you can simply use the right and left arrows next to the browser header to go back and forth between windows...

5. I am receiving emails from Zinio with special promotions and offers. How do I stop receiving these emails?

There are three ways to do this:

1. When you first create a user account on Zinio.com, you are asked to set up email permissions as part of that process. If you leave all of the ‘boxes’ unchecked, you will not receive promotional emails.
2. You may change your email permissions anytime by clicking in the “Account Settings” tab on your Zinio account page, then on the “Email Preferences” link and checking or unchecking the boxes.
3. At the bottom of every email is an “Update Contact Preferences” link that you can use to change your email preferences.

6. How do I checkout the next issue of a magazine?

You need to go back to your Library's Collection and "Click" on the next issue to add it to your Zinio.com "My Library" and Reader 4 apps.

7. I am having trouble viewing my magazines on Zinio.com when using the Google Chrome browser. Why is this?

This is a recent issue on the Zinio side and it is related to the new release of Google Chrome. Zinio has fixed the problem but if you are experiencing this issue, step by step instructions are available here: <http://www.keepandshare.com/doc/4747928/flash-player-upgrade-on-chrome-pdf-469k?da=y>. This issue does not affect Internet Explorer, FireFox or Safari browsers.

8. I am receiving free issues of magazines in my Zinio.com library. How do I stop this from happening?

This is something you can control via your "account settings" tab on Zinio.com. To stop receiving the issues, uncheck the box next to "Daily Deals" and you won't receive any more free magazines.

9. I have selected a title that says "Download Reader 4 to Read". What does this mean?

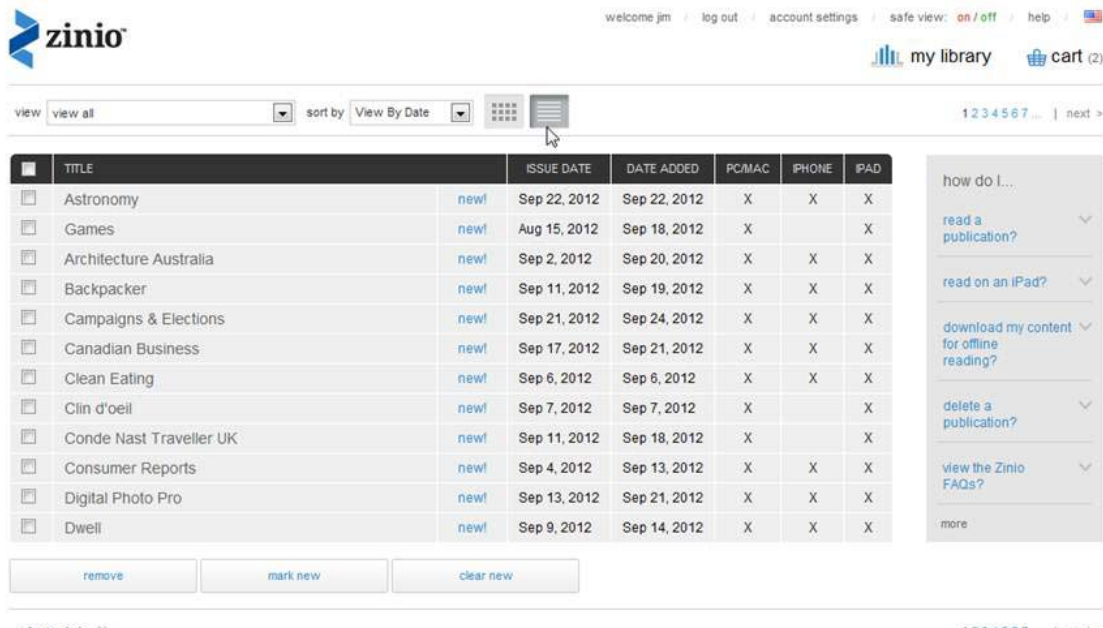

Some publishers only allow their magazines to be read via download and not via the online reader. These titles require a user to download the Zinio Reader 4 software app to their PC, Mac or mobile device in order to read the magazine. Clicking on the image of the magazine initiates the download process.

If you have already have Reader 4 installed on your PC/Mac or mobile device, you just need to login to your Reader 4 app to read the magazine (you will not be able to read the magazine in your Zinio.com "My Library").

10. A title I have checked out is not appearing on my iPhone or Android mobile device. Why?

It may take longer for Zinio to format titles for small screen mobile devices because of the “Text Flow” functionality they use for those devices. Text Flow allows users to read the text only in an article (like an eBook with no pictures) giving a better experience. The mobile device availability status for all titles you have checked out can be checked by clicking on the List View icon  on the ‘My Library’ in you Zinio.com account.

The screenshot shows the Zinio.com account interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the Zinio logo, user name 'welcome jim', and links for 'log out', 'account settings', 'safe view: on / off', and 'help'. Below this is a 'my library' section with a 'cart (2)' icon. A search bar and 'sort by View By Date' dropdown are visible. A 'List View' icon (three horizontal lines) is highlighted with a mouse cursor. Below the navigation is a table of titles:

Below the table are buttons for 'remove', 'mark new', and 'clear new'. On the right side, there's a sidebar with options like 'read a publication?', 'read on an iPad?', 'download my content for offline reading?', 'delete a publication?', and 'view the Zinio FAQs?'.

11. I do not want to see “Adult” publications when I’m using my Zinio.com account. How do I turn those off?

There are two ways to prohibit adult content from appearing in their Zinio.com account:

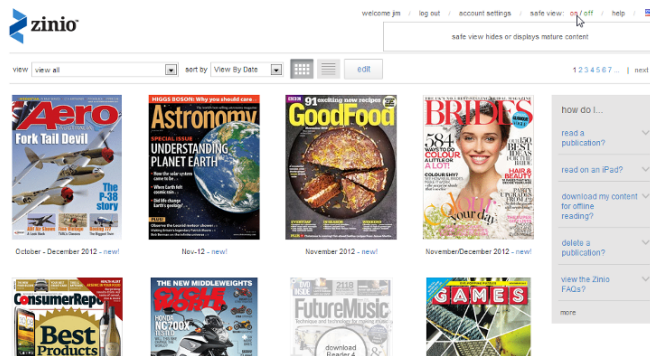

1. From the ‘account settings’ tab select ‘adult content’ then check the box next to ‘I don’t want to see mature content when I am at Zinio’:

The screenshot shows the Zinio.com account settings page. The 'Account Settings' menu is open, and the 'Adult Content' option is selected. The 'Adult Content' settings page is displayed, showing the heading 'Hide or display mature content on Zinio'. There are two radio button options: 'I don't want to see mature content when I'm at Zinio' (which is selected) and 'It's okay to show the mature content when I'm at Zinio'. A 'submit' button is visible below the options.

2. Or select 'Safe View' ON from the option in the upper right corner of your home screen:

Either method guarantees that you will not see adult content on the Zinio.com site.

12. Why do I have to login twice; once into my Library's collection and then into my Zinio.com account?

This is a security feature demanded by the publishers participating in our program.

Tip: if you are using your own personal PC or device, do not logout of zinio.com when you're finished, just close the browser window. Next time you login to your Library's Collection and click on a title to check it out, it will automatically open your Zinio.com "My Library" without you having to login again.

13. I'm having problems downloading Reader 4. What can I do?

In some cases, users may need to manually install Zinio Read 4 in 2 steps:

Install adobe AIR via this link <http://get.adobe.com/air/>

Save the Reader 4 installation file via this link <http://imgs.zinio.com/zinio-reader/installers/ZinioReader4.air> and run the file.

14. My Zinio Reader 4 app presents me with a blank black screen. Why is this?

There is a corrupt file that needs to be re-downloaded. Please follow the instructions below to resolve this problem.

1. Close application
2. Go to C:\Users\[username]\AppData\Roaming\Adobe\
3. Delete this directory - AIR
4. Reopen application

If that does NOT resolve the problem, please try the following:

1. Go to Settings > Control Panel > Add/Remove Programs
Remove Zinio Reader 4 and Zinio Alert Messenger (if you have that installed)
2. Click Start > Settings > Control Panel -> "Folder Options" (or "Appearance and Personalization")> "Folder Options"
Click on the "View" tab. Go down to "Show Hidden Files and Folders" and then click the circle next to "Show Hidden files and folders" to select it and press OK.

Delete these folders (you may only have the Zinio Reader folder):

In Vista and Windows 7:

C:\Users\YourWindowsUserName\AppData\Roaming\ZinioReader4.9...
C:\Users\YourWindowsUserName\AppData\Roaming\Application
Data\ZinioAlertMessenger9...

In XP:

C:\Documents and Settings\YourWindowsUserName\Application Data\ZinioReader4.9...
C:\Documents and Settings\YourWindowsUserName\Application
Data\ZinioAlertMessenger9...

15. How do I find the Zinio Reader 4 app for my device?

Zinio magazines may be viewed on supported App-driven devices including iPhone, iPad, Android, Kindle Fire and Blackberry Playbook. Zinio magazines may also be viewed through a web browser on Wi-Fi enabled mobile devices that support Adobe Flash. Web browser viewing results may vary depending on connectivity and system memory.

Open your device's app store and search for Zinio. You will see the Zinio icon:
Install this free app onto your device and login with you Zinio.com email and password to access your downloaded magazine titles.

16. How do I access my library's magazine collection from the Zinio Reader 4 app to checkout more titles?

The Zinio Reader 4 app is used for downloading and viewing titles and does not link back to your library's Zinio collection.

To access your library's collection and checkout more titles, you need to go to your devices' browser (Safari, Explorer, Chrome are examples) and access via the library website's Zinio link.

You will then need to login and checkout titles from the library's collection page.

When you return to your Zinio Reader 4 app and refresh the screen, the title will be ready to download and read.

17. I have downloaded Zinio Reader 4, but the magazine in My Library still shows the “Download Reader 4 to read” tag over the cover. I click on it and it takes me to the download page. Why is this when I already have the app?

This is being amended by Zinio.
You do not need to install Zinio Reader 4 again.

To view the title, just open up or refresh your Zinio Reader 4 app and the magazine issue will be there to download and read.

December 2012 - new!

18. What is the average magazine size?
